

ALPHABET

K is for.....

Handwriting practice lines for the letter 'K'. The first row contains seven dashed uppercase 'K's for tracing. The second row contains seven dashed lowercase 'k's for tracing. The remaining three rows are blank handwriting lines, each consisting of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line, for independent practice.