

Name:

Date:

South Africa: Blue crane

The Blue crane is the national bird of South Africa. It is one of the smaller species of crane. It is also known as the Stanley crane or the Paradise crane.

With the help of an adult, cut along the dotted lines and separate the names of the body parts of the blue crane given below. Stick them at the right place.

head neck beak feathers
eye legs pale blue-grey body